

Progression in Small World Play

Play with the small world toys

Participate in imaginative play using the small world toys

Make sounds as they participate in imaginary play.

Share their ideas in pretend play.

Use their imagination to begin to make characters talk.

Talk about what they are doing, describing their actions

Create simple stories

Create more complex stories with characters and settings.

Create a story with characters, setting, problems and solutions Begin to use story language.

Create a detailed story. Use story language and descriptive language.